

California Racial Equity Commission

Bylaws

Preamble

The State of California continues to march towards equality and to address historical wrongs. Despite continued progress, more work remains to attain our shared goals of providing equal opportunity for all and addressing persistent disparities in outcomes. The Racial Equity Commission is committed to creating time and space for all to be heard and valued by taking responsibility for our own voices, listening, and participating fully. We believe in working collaboratively from discussion to action and recognize that it will take multiple conversations and cohesive efforts to make effective recommendations on tools, best practices, and methodologies to address structural racism and inequities. We actively embrace the opportunity to be solution oriented, maintain democratic principles, and ensure all Californians are encouraged to contribute to this collective effort.

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this Commission shall be the Racial Equity Commission or the “Commission” established pursuant to Assembly Bill \(AB\)127 \(Committee on Budget, Chapter 45, Statutes of 2023, Section 10\) and Executive Order N-16-22.

Authority, Statutory Requirements, other Laws and Policies

The Commission shall comply with all applicable laws. To fulfill this obligation, members of the Commission may be required to undertake mandatory trainings and adhere to state and federal disclosure requirements.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

The Commission is an appointed advisory group composed of subject matter experts on (i) analyzing, implementing, or developing public policies that impact racial equity, (ii) developing or using data or budget equity assessment tools, (iii) providing technical assistance in developing and implementing strategies for racial equity, and (iv) being a member of or representing an equity-focused organization who works with an impacted community whose lived experience will inform the work of the commission.

The Commission has the authority to hold hearings and perform acts necessary to carry out the commission’s duties and engage with advisors or advisory committees.

The Commission shall develop a statewide “Racial Equity Framework” (“the Framework”). The Framework shall be approved by the Commission, submitted to the Governor and the Legislature and posted to the Commission’s internet website. The Framework shall include (i) methodologies and tools that can be employed in California to advance racial equity and address structural racism, (ii) budget methodologies to inform how funding allocations benefit or burden communities of color, (iii) processes for collecting and analyzing data, including disaggregated data as appropriate, and (iv) summaries of input and feedback from stakeholder engagement. The Commission shall prepare annual reports that summarizes feedback from public engagement with communities of color, provides data on racial inequities and disparities in the State, and recommends best practices on tools, methodologies, and opportunities to advance racial equity. The first annual report shall be submitted to the Governor and the Legislature and posted on the Commission's website in accordance with legal directives.

The Commission, through its staff, shall also provide technical assistance at the request of a state agency on implementing strategies for racial equity in alignment with the Framework. The Commission, through its staff, shall also provide technical assistance to local governments on racial equity programming, upon request, and encourage the development and implementation of racial equity initiatives by local government entities.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

As outlined in Section 8303.1 of the Government Code and Executive Order N-16-22, the Commission is composed of 11 members and is staffed by the Governor's Office of Planning and Research. The Governor shall appoint seven (7) members of the Commission. Two (2) members of the commission shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly and two (2) members of the commission shall be appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules.

SECTION 1. ACTIVE MEMBERS

Active voting members shall be appointed Commissioners, who shall serve two-year terms. Active members will constitute the majority (not less than 11) and the voting members of the Commission.

SECTION 2. QUORUM AND ADJOURNMENT

Meetings with 51% of the voting membership shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

SECTION 3. RESIGNATIONS AND REMOVAL

Any Commission member may resign from the Commission at any time by giving written notice to the Chair of Commission and the appropriate appointing body. Resignation shall take effect upon receipt of letter by the Chair of Commission. Acceptance of resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

When a Commission member's resignation has been received by the Chair of Commission, their seat on the Commission shall be deemed vacant. The Chair of the Commission may request the appropriate appointing body to appoint a new member to any vacant position. All appointments shall serve a full term on the Commission.

SECTION 4. VOTING

Each active member of the Commission is entitled to one vote. A quorum (Art. III, Sec 2) is required to vote to adopt a motion or to elect an officer. The Commission will apply a majority vote to approve a motion or to elect officers. A majority vote is defined as "more than half" of the votes cast by persons entitled to vote, excluding a vacant position or abstention, at a regular or properly called meeting.

ARTICLE IV. MEETINGS

SECTION 1. TIME OF MEETINGS

There shall be at least quarterly meetings in the state of California, the time to be determined by the Executive Director of the Commission.
